Core Funders

Badanai Theatre Company

Since 1999 Badanai Theatre has been inspiring and entertaining Thunder Bay audiences with locally produced theatrical productions. Their name and offerings have evolved over the years, but their commitment to providing quality local theatre hasn't. Originally founded by Lawrence Badanai, the theatre troupe had humble beginnings as actors rehearsed that summer for a Fringe Festival show in a residential backyard. Later, wife Candi Badanai and their daughter Emmy Badanai have become part of the journey. Candi has steadfast directed and choreographed many of the large stage productions. Some major productions include The Producers, Mamma Mia, Sister Act, The Addams Family, and most recently Something Rotten. Some summer theatre shows have included The Marvelous Wonderettes, Downtown Abbey Road, and Little Shop of Horrors. Candi and Lawrence have enjoyed every adventure over the past years from producing their own productions to also supporting numerous other local professional and amateur theatre companies and festivals. They also lead the children's theatre group Paramount Live to help empower youth and allow them to experience the joy of creating theatre. They regularly attend workshops in New York and to keep an active networking connection between Thunder Bay and Broadway. Badanai Theatre is steadfast in their mission to offer a safe environment to create theatre and have fun doing it - for both the performers and audiences. "Making theatre fun again" is their goal and everyone is welcome to be part of their theatre family.
